V<sup>E</sup> DIVISION.

La V<sup>e</sup> DIVISION du Livre <sup>(1)</sup> des Portes se rencontre neuf fois sur les monuments royaux :

- H. : Horemheb, tombe, salle du sarcophage, paroi droite, paroi du fond.
- S.I : Séti I<sup>er</sup>, tombe, salle à quatre piliers, paroi du fond-côté gauche, paroi d'entrée-côté droit, paroi droite, paroi du fond-côté droit <sup>(2)</sup>.
- S.Is. : Séti I<sup>er</sup>, sarcophage, à l'extérieur, côté gauche.
- R.II : Ramsès II, tombe, salle P, paroi d'entrée-côté droit <sup>(3)</sup>.
- O. : Osireion (Ménephtah), corridor d'entrée, paroi droite.
- M. : Ménephtah, tombe, deuxième salle, paroi d'entrée-côté droit, paroi droite, paroi du fond-côté droit <sup>(4)</sup>.
- S.II : Séti II, tombe, deuxième salle, paroi d'entrée-côté droit, paroi droite, paroi du fond-côté droit <sup>(5)</sup>.
- R.III : Ramsès III, tombe, troisième salle, paroi d'entrée-côté droit, paroi droite, paroi du fond-côté droit. Septième corridor, paroi du fond <sup>(6)</sup>.
- R.VI : Ramsès VI, tombe, deuxième corridor, paroi gauche <sup>(7)</sup>.

Le trait caractéristique de cette division est son pylône qui comprend avant le battant un espace rectangulaire qu'occupe le Tableau d'Osiris (Scène de métempsycose) avec des inscriptions énigmatiques (Fig. 1). Malheureusement

Dans H. (paroi du fond) il n'y a que le Tableau d'Osiris sans pylône ni battant. A droite du tableau on voit la fin des trois registres de la V<sup>e</sup> DIVISION. Les décorateurs de la tombe ont placé cette division à l'envers: ainsi la barque solaire avec les quatre haleurs dont l'esquisse se trouve sur la paroi droite à la suite de la II<sup>e</sup> DIVISION, est halée vers Osiris au lieu de l'être dans le sens contraire, comme dans la tombe de R.VI et dans O.

Dans R.II le Tableau d'Osiris avec le battant est très mal conservé. La V<sup>e</sup> DIVISION n'a pas été retrouvée.

Dans M., S.II et R.III la division est précédée d'un battant. Il n'y a pas de pylône. Quant au Tableau d'Osiris reproduit par Lefébure qui se trouvait au fond de la tombe de R.III, il a complètement disparu <sup>(1)</sup>.

Ainsi, la V<sup>e</sup> DIVISION se rencontre dans :

TABLEAU D'OSIRIS (Fig. 3).

Le «Tableau» a un toit décoré par des hekerou; du plafond descendent quatre têtes de bubales. Osiris siège sur un trône auquel mène un escalier sur les marches duquel sont 9 dieux qui représentent «l'Ennéade d'Osiris». Devant Osiris un personnage momiforme porte sur ses épaules une balance. Un Anubis, face à Osiris, se trouve dans l'angle supérieur du tableau. Sous lui est une barque avec un porc et un singe tenant un bâton recourbé. Un autre singe similaire est au-dessus de la barque. Les textes dans H. (Fig. 4, 5 et 6) qui sont le mieux conservés, sont placés :

Le titre (texte 1) est au-dessus de la scène.

Le texte 2 se rapporte aux bubales.

Sous les têtes des bubales: un grand texte 3 (embrouillé dans R.VI) et 4 (embrouillé dans H. et R.VI).

Texte d'Anubis-5.

Au-dessus des singes: textes 6 (embrouillé dans H. et R.VI), 7, 8, 9 et 10.

Au-dessus de l'Ennéade: texte 11.

Au-dessus de la balance: textes 12 (embrouillé dans R.VI) et 13.

Le nom d'Osiris-14.

Ennéade d'Osiris-15.

Texte sur l'escalier, sous le trône: 16.

Osiris regarde vers la droite ( $\rightarrow$ ), les figures de la V<sup>e</sup> Division sont orientées vers la gauche ( $\leftarrow$ ).

La V<sup>e</sup> Division est orientée :

|       | Tableau d'Osiris(Osiris regarde :) | Division          |
|-------|--|-------------------|
| H.    | $\longrightarrow$                      | $\longleftarrow$  |

La V<sup>e</sup> Division comprend trois registres. Au deuxième registre, Registre de la Barque, sont représentés trois groupes de personnages. La Barque est halée par quatre dieux *     . La barque est pareille à celles des autres divisions, seulement le naos manque dans R.III. Devant la barque une théorie de 12 dieux             les mains cachées sous un court manteau (S.I, S.II, M., R.III). Ce groupe est précédé de 8 autres dieux         (Dans H. deux personnages seulement de ce groupe sont représentés; dans S.II on ne voit que 6 dieux au lieu de 8). Dans O. le roi est représenté deux fois: dans la barque, agenouillé devant le naos et à la tête de la procession des 8, à la fin du registre. Dans S.I, la fin du registre contient 6 personnages du registre inférieur accompagnés du texte du début de ce registre<sup>(1)</sup>. Dans M. au même registre se trouvent les représentations du registre de la barque de la III<sup>e</sup> Division.

Au registre supérieur sont représentés trois groupes de personnages: 12 dieux             qui tiennent des bâtons fourchus; 12 autres portent un serpent géant du corps duquel surgissent des têtes humaines. Ils sont dénommés             Enfin, le dernier groupe de 12 dieux             porte une double corde avec 12 étoiles placées au-dessus d'elle. Cette corde va au cou d'un personnage momiforme debout. Dans H. il n'y a que le personnage momiforme et deux dieux tenant la corde. Dans M. derrière le personnage momiforme sont les représentations du registre supérieur de la III<sup>e</sup> Division.

Au registre inférieur le dieu *  appuyé sur un bâton s'adresse à 12 momies             couchées sur le corps d'un serpent énorme  qui est allongé sur 12 lits. Un groupe de 12 dieux             se dirige vers un puits entre deux dieux momiformes dans lequel est un cobra. Dans H. il n'y a que le puits et les deux dieux momiformes. Dans S.I un seul personnage à gauche du puits; dans M. on voit encore la tête d'un dieu à gauche du puits qui a disparu; dans S.II le dernier groupe est de 6 personnages au lieu de 12, le puits manque.

<sup>(1)</sup> Registre Inférieur, S.I, 1. Dans ce même registre la deuxième partie du texte du premier groupe est tracée deux fois, S.I, 2, S.I, 3, ainsi que le début du texte du troisième groupe, S.I, 4.

Dans H. les textes et les figures du Tableau d'Osiris, ainsi que ceux des trois registres de la V<sup>e</sup> DIVISION, ont été esquissés au trait rouge, puis refaits au trait noir. La DIVISION est gravée et peinte dans S.I, M., S.II, R.III et R.VI; peinte seulement dans O. Les couleurs employées sont pareilles à celles des autres Divisions.

Le Tableau d'Osiris dans la tombe de R.II a été relevé par Ch. Maystre, collationné par J. J. Clère et par Madame H. Jaquet. Le Dr. E. Hornung a copié pour moi le texte du battant de la V<sup>e</sup> DIVISION dans cette tombe. Les textes énigmatiques dans R.VI avaient été collationnés par H. W. Fairman. Je présente à ces collaborateurs mes remerciements. Je remercie également le Dr. Edward F. Wente pour les photographies et la collation des textes dans O., le Dr. Charles F. Nims pour les photographies dans M., ainsi que Mr. N. Millet, Directeur du Centre Américain en Egypte, pour m'avoir copié des textes dans M.

O. : Osireion (Ménephtah), corridor d'entrée, paroi droite.

R.III : Ramsès III, tombe, Salle R (Registre de la barque et registre supérieur en deux registres sur la paroi du fond de la salle. Le registre inférieur se trouve sur la paroi droite, disposé en deux registres, de bas en haut. Il est répété sur la paroi gauche avec la même disposition - R.III, 1) <sup>(2)</sup>.

S.Is. : Le Pylône et le début manquent. Trois registres. Les figures et les signes sont orientés vers la gauche (←).

O. : Pylône et battant, trois registres. Les figures sont orientées (←), les signes (→) (fig. 1).

R.III : Pas de Pylône, ni de battant. Paroi du fond et paroi droite (→). Paroi gauche (←).

R.VI : Pylône et battant, trois registres. Figures et texte (→).

REGISTRE DE LA BARQUE.

Comme dans les Divisions précédentes, le dieu criocéphale se tient debout dans sa barque et est halé par quatre divinités. Le naos du dieu est enveloppé par le serpent Mehen. À l'avant et à l'arrière de la barque sont les dieux Sia et Heka (dans R.III). Dans O. et R.III le roi est représenté à genoux devant le naos. Son nom est au dessus de lui. La barque se dirige vers un groupe entre deux personnages, Atoum et Noub-neterou, qui s'appuient sur un bâton (O.). Dans R.III et R.VI Noub-neterou tient le sceptre . Le groupe encadré par ces deux divinités est composé de sept  auxquels sont attachés des « ennemis ». Les  personnifient Ra ( — O., R.III;  — S.Is. et R.VI), Atoum Shou, Geb, Osiris et Horus. Dans O., devant et derrière chaque , est une momie debout; sept regardent du côté de la barque () , la huitième est tournée dans le sens opposé () . Dans S.Is., R.III et R.VI ce sont des personnages enveloppés d'une gaine, les mains croisées sur la poitrine. Ils sont huit dans R.III et sept dans R.VI (le personnage devant le premier  manque, de même que sur S.Is.). Ils sont dénommés sur S.Is., dans O. et R.III, sauf le premier, qui reste toujours anonyme. Dans O. le septième a deux noms. Dans O. et R.III au dessus du quatrième est le chiffre 1 et 11 au dessus du cinquième; dans R.VI au dessus de la tête du quatrième est le chiffre 111.

REGISTRE SUPÉRIEUR.

Dans ce registre sont deux groupes de 12 dieux, les premiers portant des corbeilles sur la tête, les autres la plume .

REGISTRE INFÉRIEUR.

Dans ce registre le dieu Neb-iaout-ib (le nom existe dans O. et R.VI. Il est représenté deux fois dans R.III, mais sans nom) appuyé sur un bâton s'adresse à deux groupes de personnages: 12 figures qui s'inclinent chacune devant un énorme épi et sept autres qui portent des faucilles. Dans O. ce groupe est précédé par le roi et se dirige vers un autre personnage appuyé sur un bâton. Son nom est effacé. Ce deuxième dieu n'existe pas ni dans les deux versions de R.III, ni dans R.VI.

Les figures et le texte sont gravés dans S.Is., dans R.III et dans R.VI, peintes seulement dans O.
